

The diet coefficient for each phenotype at each timepoint indicates the estimated effect in units of standard deviations. The bars around the coefficient show  $\pm -1$  standard error of the coefficient. The asterisks indicate phenotypes for which the diet effect is significant at a FWER of 0.05

